PURPOSE: PARENTING ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Offers an array of support services with an emphasis on engaging non-custodial and custodial mothers to support the well-being of their children through education, training and with personal development with a focus on family strengthening.

As a part of this Female Parenting Enrichment Program, parents and mothers are educated about practical parenting styles and skills. Emphasis is placed on the critical need for the mother to be a caregiver and active in parenting their children as well as the serving as positive role models for their children in our communities.

* This Enrichment Program will assist moms with supportive services, identify and overcome barriers they face in maintaining an active role in their children's lives, becoming and remaining current on financial obligations to their children, and finding ongoing support in the community.

M.O.M Talk (Meeting of Moms) Is an open forum discussion within a supportive group that meets weekly which gives Females and Mother's a confidential place to talk about concerns, challenges and life situations in a productive group setting. While brainstorming productive strategies and gaining new effective ways of communication to voice your concerns with other peers.

Special Circumstances classes

The content includes different specific situations. Covers child abuse and the harm it does on the child and how to get help to end the cycle of abuse. This lesson helps educate on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and drug use and how it can affect their child. It shows the true harm that drugs can do to the user and their baby, before and after they are born.

Purposeful Parenting "Is About Me"

This series is the foundational level or ground floor of womanhood. The 25 lesson study focuses on identity and gives an overview of basic female and parental issues. It will help individual deal with various identity issues by looking back at past wounds and other situations that may have distorted their idea of mothering. It gives parents the tools for raising their kids to take responsibility for their own actions, attitudes, and emotions. These modules will help bring order to problematic family circumstances and guide even the most stable families into better ways of relating.
