STRIVE: FATHERHOOD ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

Offers an array of support services with an emphasis on engaging non-custodial and custodial fathers to support the well-being of their children through education, training and with personal development with a focus on family strengthening.

As a part of the Fatherhood Enrichment Program, fathers and mothers are educated about practical parenting styles and skills. Emphasis is placed on the critical need for the father to be active in parenting their children as well as the serving as positive role models for their children in our communities.

* The Fatherhood Enrichment Program will assist dads with supportive services, identify and overcome barriers they face in maintaining an active role in their children’s lives, becoming and remaining current on financial obligations to their children, and finding ongoing support in the community.

D.A.D Talk (Dads All

Day) Is an open forum discussion within a supportive group that meets weekly and gives Men and Father’s a confidential place to talk about concerns, challenges and life situations in a productive group setting. PARENTING CLASSES

Are designed to assist men in raising healthy children, and encourages a father’s active role in supporting their families and children.

Classes contain several modules, for a complete list of prices and class selections. Call one of our case managers for an appointment.

Practical Fatherhood classes

The content includes the reasons why it is important to do what is right along with inspiration for moving beyond those difficult moments. Examples of how to apply these principles in their lives can be found throughout the lessons. This series is perfect for fathers who are expecting or who already have children below the age of 18.

Men’s fatherhood curriculum

This series is the foundational level or ground floor of manhood. The 25 lesson study focuses on a man’s core identity and gives an overview of basic manhood issues. It will help men deal with various identity issues by looking back at past wounds and other situations that may have distorted their idea of masculinity. Throughout the course of the study, men will learn how to clearly define manhood and will finally be able to give a succinct and passionate answer to the questions, “What is a man?” and “What am I living to be?”
